United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea SPLOS/106

Meeting of States Parties

Distr.: General
8 July 2003

Original: English

Special Meeting
New York, 2 September 2003

Election of a member of the International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea

Curricula vitae of candidates nominated by Governments of States Parties

Note by the Registrar of the International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea

I. Introduction

The Registrar hereby submits to the Meeting of States Parties the curriculum vitae of the candidate nominated by a State Party for the election of a judge to fill the vacancy in the membership of the Tribunal due to the demise of Judge Lennox Fitzroy Ballah on 29 March 2003. The election is for the remainder of his term of nine years, which would have ended on 30 September 2011. The list as provided for in article 4, paragraph 2, of the Statute of the Tribunal is contained in document SPLOS/105.

II. Curriculum vitae

Anthony Amos Lucky (Trinidad and Tobago)

Date of birth: 11 May 1940.

Marital status: Married.

Religion: Roman Catholic.

Education

1958-1961	Council of Legal Education, London, United Kingdom, Gray's Inn, October 1958-November 1961.
1961	May-November: Post Final Practical Training Certificate.

03-42889 (E) 170703

1972-1973	University of the West Indies, Institute of International Relations — Diploma in International Relations.
1974-1975	University of the West Indies, Faculty of Social Sciences — Master's Degree, International Relations.
	Commonwealth Secretariat — Certificate in Legislative Drafting.

Professional experience

1961-1963	Private practice — Chambers of W.H. Agrimude (Civil), F.K.R. Misir (Criminal), W. Hercules (Civil and Criminal) (December 1961-July 1963).
1963-1964	Attorney General's Department (now Ministry of Legal Affairs) — Legal Cadet (July 1963-July 1964).
1964-1974	Magistracy of Trinidad and Tobago (July 1964-November 1974).
	As Magistrate, presided as Petty Civil Court Judge; Coroner.
	Chairman, Licensing Committee, Princes Town and Moruga.
	Appointed Chairman of Civil Service Disciplinary Committees on four occasions.
1974-1976	Acting Secretary, Law Reform Commission, Law Commission, Port of Spain (December 1974-September 1976).
1976-1977	In-House Counsel, The Royal Bank of Trinidad and Tobago Limited (October 1976-April 1977).
1977-1987	Corporate Secretary and In-House Counsel, The Royal Bank of Trinidad and Tobago and Subsidiary Companies (April 1977-June 1987).
1979-1987	Legal Advisor, Royal Bank Trust Company, General Finance Corporation — Associated Companies of Royal Bank (1979-June 1987).
1984-1987	Secretary and Legal Advisor, Caribbean Banking Corporation, St. Vincent and the Grenadines (1984-June 1987).
	Secretary and Legal Advisor, R & M Holdings, St. Vincent and the Grenadines.
1987	Admitted to practice in St. Vincent and the Grenadines on 30 January 1987 as a barrister and solicitor.
1987	Appointed a judge of the Supreme Court of Trinidad and Tobago (July 1987).
2001	Appointed a justice of appeal in the Court of Appeal of Trinidad and Tobago (October 2001).
1991-present	Judicial contact visits to meet judges and distinguished jurists were made to the United Kingdom, India, Hong Kong, Bangkok, Thailand, Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia, Singapore, Australia, Canada and a number of Caribbean Common Law jurisdictions, including

St. Vincent and the Grenadines, Barbados and Jamaica. Such contacts were also made at several international conferences.

Teaching experience

Institute of International Relations: Guest lecturer, Law of the Sea.

University of the West Indies, 1963-1966: Part-time lecturer in Law, Extra Mural Department.

Hugh Wooding Law School, 1985-1986: Associate Tutor — Law of Associations.

Hugh Wooding Law School, 1986-2000: Associate Tutor — Legal Drafting and Interpretation.

Seminar and workshop papers

Computer Law, "Admissibility of computer printouts in evidence and examination of the Evidence Act in Commonwealth Caribbean countries", Law Conference, October 1985, Kingston, Jamaica.

"Legal rights of fishing in the serpent's mouth", published in the Trinidad Guardian.

"Admissibility of computer records into evidence in criminal trials", meeting hosted by the Law Commission of Ontario, March 1985, Ontario, Canada.

"Receivership and liquidations", Seminar, Ideas Inc., October 1986.

"The legal duties and responsibilities of the company director", Central Bank Examiners of the Caribbean Basin, Central Bank, Port of Spain, November 1986.

Participation in discussion panels in various forums, including national seminars, television programmes and as a guest lecturer on various aspects of international law, including the Law of the Sea, in particular on issues relating to maritime delimitation and the environment.

Social community activities

Member, Archbishop's Council of the Laity during its existence prior to the National Council.

Member, Parish Council, St. Benedict's Parish, La Romain; lay minister, La Romain Parish.

Member, The Board of Management, Presentation College, San Fernando and Chaguanas, 1976-2002.

President, Presentation College Past Students' Association, 1988-1991 and 1995-1996.

Trinidad and Tobago Life Guard (bronze medallion).

Chairman, Kidney Foundation of Trinidad and Tobago.

Scouting — Queen's Scout (1955).

Member, Queen's Park Cricket Club.

Member, Trinidad and Tobago Cricket Council.

Chairman — Disciplinary Tribunal, Trinidad and Tobago Cricket Board.

Member, Disciplinary Committee of West Indies Cricket Board, 1995-1996; 1996-1998 and 1998 to present.

Member, TRINTOC, Pointe-a-Pierre Club.

Interviewer and guest speaker at several service clubs and organizations and youth groups.

Sporting activities

Athletics, cricket, football, tennis, swimming.

Hobbies

Reading, travelling, music.